

Career Opportunity

Communications & Public Information Officer

Cabarrus Health Alliance (CHA) is accepting applications for a Communications & Public Information Officer position now! Click here for an application. or visit www.cabarrushealth.org/jobs.

CHA is the provider of public health services for Cabarrus County, North Carolina. CHA's primary office is located in Kannapolis adjacent to the North Carolina Research Campus, with an additional location in Concord. CHA is both state and nationally accredited. These designations are a direct reflection of high quality performance from all staff.

Our mission is simple: "Achieving the Highest Level of Individual and Community Health through Collaborative Action."

The Communications & Public Information Officer:

- Communicates important health and safety information with the community
- Develops and maintains strong relationships with local media professionals
- Prepares written communications for the organization, including press releases
- Coaches and mentors staff on their message delivery
- Requires excellent attention to detail and organization skills
- Should have a great sense of humor!
- Has a flexible work schedule
- Has supervisory responsibility

CHA's current benefit package includes:

- 100% CHA paid employee health insurance
- 401(k) 2% matching contribution
- Tuition reimbursement
- Annual Wellness stipend
- Longevity pay
- Volunteer matching time allowance
- Paid Maternal/Paternal leave benefit
- 12 Paid holidays
- Staff fitness room with shower and lockers
- 3 mile loop around the research campus & Village Park in walking distance
- Accrued sick time from LGERS employers is transferable
- Prior local and state government years of service count toward vacation accrual rate

Cabarrus Health Alliance is an equal opportunity employer. We celebrate inclusivity and are committed to creating an equitable environment for all staff.